

THE MULTICULTURAL INFORMATION CENTER AT THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS AT AUSTIN PRESENTS

Dear Academic Advisors, Student Affairs Staff, and Faculty,

We are pleased to invite you to nominate students for the first ever Asian American Leadership Institute (AALI). This institute is designed to nurture skills in students with a focus on incorporating elements of leadership and Asian American awareness.

From September 13, 2004 to November 1, 2004, students will attend a series of weekly seminars to learn valuable professional development skills. These seminars will cover the following topics:

- Program Planning
- Fundraising/Developing a Budget
- Public Speaking/Facilitating Discussions
- Ethics in Leadership
- Publicity
- Graphic Design
- Résumé Development

This institute is open to all students of any classification and major who share Asian American interest. While participating in the institute, the participants will also be engaged in planning a large-scale program where they will apply the skills they learn through the institute. Upon completion of AALI, the participants will have designed from beginning to end, a statewide Pan-Asian American Spring conference at UT.

Please use the following form to nominate students for this institute, including a brief reference statement, and email or send them by campus mail by September 9, 2004.

Mamta Motwani Accapadi
Assistant Director, Multicultural Information Center

Anita A. Ahmed
Director, Asian Pacific American Coalition
